DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This brick dwelling is the tenant house on the farm described in WA-III-003. It is a two story, five bay structure with common bond at all elevations and painted white. Two doors are located side by side in the center of the front elevation. There are no openings at the second story level above the doors. The house would appear to date from the third quarter of the 19th century.
